

Harry Potter - Hogwarts Battle: Optional rule

In the later scenarios of HARRY POTTER - HOGWARTS BATTLE, it happens in rare cases that there are only expensive Hogwarts cards lying on the game board. In this case, the game flow stag-nates since nobody can afford a card. As a remedy, the authors have posted an optional rule on Boardgamegeek: Instead of acquiring cards, a player clears away the entire(!) Hogwarts display and refills it with six new cards. However, such a replacement is allowed only once per game. The cleared-away cards are put underneath the pile.
